„The Essence of Living“ The essence of living and savoring memorable moments in unique settings. The essence of a perfume, a garden, a breath: the essence of life.

Magna Pars Suites Milano, at Via Forcella 6, expands and enriches the Magna Pars Event Space project launched in 1991 at Via Tortona 15, adding a new chapter dedicated to excellence in Italian hospitality.

Built on the original site of the perfume factory owned by the Martone family, this unique hotel designed by Architect Luciano Maria Colombo combines environmental sustainability and high technology in an advanced eco-compatible, energy-saving project that expresses innovation and beauty. Every detail and aspect reveals these fundamental values.

The Martone family's love of perfume, art, and hospitality inspired them to create Magna Pars Suites Milano: the Essence of Living. It is a fascinating place with an enthralling and exciting story, a dream that interprets a prestigious past filled with emotion, talent and artisan savoir faire. Its twenty-eight exclusive suites offer sophisticated hospitality, comfort, privacy and pampering that will satisfy and surprise even the most discerning and curious travelers.

Just as perfume-making requires restraint, talent and sensibility, the hotel architecture is based on a rigorous design.

Here, wood – the oldest and most noble material – combined with the strength of steel and the transparency of glass meets state-of-the-art domestic technology. The building is constructed around a magnificent inner courtyard, a lush garden of rare beauty with an enchanting and relaxing atmosphere that lets guests indulge all five senses even in the beating heart of the Tortona area.

Elegance and precious details are joined by many prestigious services for guests, which makes Magna Pars Suites Milano the perfect destination for business travelers, connoisseurs of culture and art, people who love the city and its social life, and guests seeking relaxation and well-being. The hotel, with its 28 exclusive Suites, is an expression of excellence, discretion, and respectful creativity, which makes it the perfect place for people who love refinement. Inspired by olfactory elements from the world of perfumes and reflecting the same attention and taste for details as the factory that once stood on this site, Magna Pars Suites Milano is a place of dreams and emotions.
