

At the HOTEL LONDRA PALACE, the fascination and luxury of a historic hotel are complemented by comfort and modern facilities. For over 140 years, the LONDRA PALACE with its 100 windows overlooking St. Mark's Basin, has been a favorite gathering place for artists, people of culture, travelers and tourists who appreciate authentic places that are not bound by the spirit of time. Its restaurant DO LEONI, is a temple to Venetian cuisine, thanks to the artistry of the chef, Loris Indri, who combines tradition with innovation. The excitement of good food is enhanced by the pleasure of dining in an elegant setting rich in atmosphere.

• IN THE HEART OF VENICE •

The privilege of being in Venice is lived to its fullest with a stay at the LONDRA PALACE. The Hotel is right on the Riva degli Schiavoni, just a few steps from St. Mark's Square, Ponte dei Sospiri and other famous spots as well as the most hidden, authentic corners of the city known as Serenissima. The reception staff are always happy to provide guests with accurate directions.

• AN ENCHANTING STAY •

The LONDRA PALACE offers 53 rooms in Biedermeier style, each one different from the others, featuring elegant upholstery, brocades and marble bathrooms. Each room is unique : views of St. Mark's Basin and the Lagoon are on one side, the rooftops and bell towers of Venice 's historic center on the other.

• LIVING SPACE •

Each space at the LONDRA PALACE was designed to instill emotions and a sense of wellbeing in guests. The bright renovated sitting rooms on the ground floor dialogue with the outside through the transparency of the glass which bears the memory of Petr Il'ic Tchaikovsky 's stay at the Hotel. The veranda on the Riva degli Schiavoni is an ideal place to sip one of the delightful cocktail prepared by the barmen, enjoy lunch or dinner, have tea or simply relax.

• THE ART OF HOSPITALITY •

A stay in room 106 offers a taste of history. Here, in December 1877, the Russian composer Petr Il'ic Tchaikovsky wrote the first three movements of Symphony n. 4 originally entitled "Do Leoni". Some other famous guests of the hotel include Gabriele D'Annunzio, who stayed here in 1877 and attended the unveiling of the monument in front of the Hotel, built in honor of King Vittorio Emanuele II, the writers Jorge Luis Borges, to whom the new suite has been dedicated and Iosif Brodskij, recipient of the Nobel Prize for Literature.

• DINING WITH CLASS •

The DO LEONI Restaurant is the pride of the HOTEL LONDRA PALACE. The Chef, Loris Indri, skillfully espouses Venetian traditions with the most innovative and traditional tastes, selecting local products for the range of seafood and meat specialists featured in the menu. His culinary art is enhanced by the elegance of the indoor dining room, whose décor includes artistic crystal, original paintings and antiques and the veranda on the Riva degli Schiavoni. The DO LEONI Restaurant welcomes outside guests and also hosts private banquets for a maximum number of 50 either the indoor or outdoor dining area.

• THE HISTORY OF A LEGEND •

The name "LONDRA PALACE" goes back to the 1970s. Originally, the hotel was made up of two separate hotels: the Hotel Angleterre & Pension, later called Londres, dating back to 1853 and the Beau Rivage, built in 1865. The two buildings were joined together in 1900. The roof of the older building was raised in the 1950's, renovations carried out at the turn of the new century and the latest redesign of the space on the street level give the hotel its current aspect.
